

Mass Media

Media is controlled (indirectly or directly) by the government, media speaks people, and/or executes, censorship, especially in war time, is very common.

McConnell v. Federal Election Commission, 540 U.S. 931

- Supreme Court
- Justice Kennedy,
- *approves corporate campaign contributions

"there is no such thing as too much"...

Corporate Power is Protected A mutually beneficial relationship exists between government and business leaders and the interests that put them in power.

Supremacy of the Military

The military receives disproportionate funding, while domestic issues are neglected. Soldiers and military service are glorified.

Project 2025's Plan to Dismantle Public Education—
And Screw Over Disabled Kids

Asian American professor wrongfully accused of spying for China is suing University of Kansas

Hostility toward education and education and
expression through art
is openly promoted.
Academics and artists
are often censored and even arrested.

Rampant Cronyism and Corruption

Officials appoint friends, family, and associates to privileged positions in the state, often using their authority to prevent accountability.

Disdain for the Recognition of Human Rights

Under fascism, exceptions are made
to deny human rights:

Examples:

- freedom from slavery (except as punishment for crime).
  - right to assemble (if you have a permit).
  - presumed innocence (unless law enforcement "fear for their safety").
